

Account Application

Fidelity Investments 403(b) Custodial Account

Opening a New Account: Please complete this application, including the beneficiary designation, and sign it in Section 6. You may revoke the beneficiary designation and designate a different beneficiary by submitting a new Beneficiary Designation Form to Fidelity. You will receive written confirmation once your account is established. At that point, you can submit a Salary Reduction Agreement to your employer who can then forward contributions to your account.

Fees: Your account may be subject to an annual maintenance fee, recordkeeping fee, or both which will vary depending on your institution's plan size and processing requirements. Please contact Fidelity, your employer, or your tax advisor to determine your maximum allowable contribution.

Unless otherwise instructed by your employer, mail this form to:

4. DESIGNATING YOUR BENEFICIARY(IES)

I am: ☐ Single ☐ Married

If you are married and your plan is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) (i.e., your employer is not a government unit or church and makes contributions to your account), and you do not designate that your spouse receive an amount equal to at least 50% (or a higher percentage, if so provided under your employer's plan) of your vested account balance in the form of a preretirement survivor annuity, then your spouse must sign the Spousal Consent portion of this form in the presence of a notary public or a representative of the plan. Please check with your employer about the spousal consent and any additional beneficiary requirements specific to your plan.

If you are married and you do not designate your spouse as your primary beneficiary for at least 50% of your account balance (as described above), this beneficiary designation becomes null and void on (a) the first day of the plan year in which you reach age 35 or (b) the date of separation from service, whichever comes first, and your spouse must complete a new spousal consent on the Beneficiary Designation Form.

You are not limited to two primary and three contingent beneficiaries. To assign additional beneficiaries, please attach, sign and date a separate piece of paper.

When designating beneficiaries, please use whole percentages and be sure that the percentages for each group of beneficiaries (primary and contingent) total 100%. If you assign a trust as a beneficiary, please include the trust's name and address and the date the trust was created.

If more than one person is named and no percentages are indicated, payment will be made in equal shares to my primary beneficiary(ies) who survives me. If a percentage is indicated and a primary beneficiary(ies) does not survive me, the percentage of that beneficiary's designated share shall be divided equally among the surviving primary beneficiary(ies).

I hereby designate the person(s) named below as primary beneficiary(ies) to receive payment of the value of my 403(b) account upon my death.

This section does not need to be completed if you are single, your spouse is your primary beneficiary for at least 50% of your account balance (or a higher percentage, as described in Section 4), or your plan is not subject to ERISA, as described in Section 4.

I hereby consent to the designation of the beneficiary(ies) listed above. I understand that (1) the effect of this designation is to cause some or all of my spouse's death benefit to be paid to someone other than me; (2) such beneficiary designation is not valid unless I consent to it; and (3) my consent is irrevocable unless my spouse revokes the beneficiary designation.

I acknowledge that if my spouse is currently under 35 years of age, this beneficiary designation becomes ineffective on (a) the first day of the plan year in which he/she reaches age 35 or (b) the date of separation from service, whichever comes first, and that I must complete a new spousal consent in order for such beneficiary designation to become effective.
